To whom this may concern:

This letter is for a formal reference verification for Logan Edmondson.

Logan has been an employee of mine for close to 3 years. He has always had a great personality and thought of advancement for himself and what he is doing. He has grown over those years into an adaptable and coachable young man. He has high ambition for his craft, and I feel that he can pursue many fields and have success. He would be a great addition to your team. The skills that he has obtained in our high-volume production environment is the respect for the process and how time management is critical for the success of not only the day but future days as well. He is a well-rounded young man and is setting himself up for a great things in his future.

I fully recommend him for his abilities as a young professional in your company. If you have any further questions, you can reach me at the below contact information.
